

Membership Terms and Conditions

Children in Scotland membership provides you with a wide range of exclusive benefits that will support you in your work with and for children, young people and their families.

The following sets out the terms and conditions for all members:

- Membership is subject to approval from the Children in Scotland Board of Directors.
- Children in Scotland membership is annual and runs from April to March.
- Any members joining after 1st November will be given a pro rata rate for the remainder of that membership year.
- All memberships are automatically renewed on the 1st of April each year.
- It is the responsibility of members to advise if they wish to cancel their membership.
- Any membership that has been renewed and subsequently cancelled cannot be refunded if cancelled after the 1st of September.
- Membership is non-transferable.
- Members are responsible for informing us of changes to their contact information, mailing and address details.
- Membership prices will be reviewed on an annual basis and any changes will be subject to approval from the Children in Scotland Board of Directors.
- Members will be advised in advance of their renewal date if their annual membership fee increases.
- Membership benefits can be subject to change throughout the membership year.
- We reserve the right to cancel membership without refund if it is found that the actions of a member, or of an employee of a member organisation, may cause reputational damage to Children in Scotland.
- Members are required to adhere to the Vision and Values of Children in Scotland.
- We reserve the right to cancel membership without refund if any individual member or employee of a member organisation behaves in a threatening or abusive way to our staff or contractors.
